

REPORT TO SOCIETY 2006: GLOBAL COMPACT REPORTING INDEX PAGE REFERENCES

Anglo American became a signatory to the UN Secretary-General's Global Compact in 2004. The compact asks companies to embrace, support and enact, within their sphere of influence, a set of core values in the areas of human rights, labour standards, the environment and anti-corruption.

We report on our progress against these values, and all the other principles to which we have signed up, through our annual report to society. The overarching principles which guide us are described in Good Citizenship: Our Business Principles. These page references refer to the Report to Society 2005:

Human Rights

- Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights (pages 8, 31)
- Principle 2: Make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses (page 31) Labour Standards

- Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining (page 23)
- Principle 4: The elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour (business principles)
- Principle 5: The effective abolition of child labour (business principles)
- Principle 6: The elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation (page 9)

Environment

- Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges (pages 37-48, 49-51)
- Principle 8: Undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility (pages 36, 37-48, 49-51)
- Principle 9: Encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies 39-43, 45, 49-51)

Anti-Corruption

- Principle 10: Businesses should work against all forms of corruption, including extortion and bribery (page 9)
